About

Founded in 1948, NAFSA: Association of International Educators is the world's largest professional membership promoting the exchange of students and scholars to and from the United States. NAFSA's membership is comprised of foreign student advisers and admissions officers, study abroad advisers, directors of international programs, teachers and administrators of English as a second language programs, overseas educational advisers, community volunteers, administrators of sponsored exchange programs, and others. These professionals help students and scholars from diverse educational and cultural backgrounds make the most of a stay outside their home country. NAFSA members represent all 50 states and 100 countries.

Benefits of NAFSA include a subscription to the bi-monthly journal, International Educator, as well as a subscription to the weekly electronic NAFSA.news, on-line services, professional development programs, e-Communities with individualized discussion forums and much more.
