About

Founded in 2001, the Association for Conflict Resolution (ACR) represents an influential niche group of mediators, arbitrators and educators involved in conflict resolution and resolving disputes. ACR members are primarily lawyers, social workers, human resource professionals, psychologists, educators and ministers.

Conflict resolution is an alternative to using the traditional court system. ACR members are trained mediators who strive to resolve family disputes, workplace disputes, labor/management issues, environmental/public policy issues, health care disputes, international conflicts, and many others.
