About

Founded in 1993, the Design-Build Institute of America is the only organization that defines, teaches and promotes best practices in design-build. DBIA focuses on an integrated design-build approach that delivers design and construction services under one contract with a single point of responsibility.

DBIA represents the entire design and construction industry. As an institute, our primary objective is to promote "Design-Build Done Right" by providing education, training, networking and support to all players involved in the design and construction industry. Members span the entire spectrum of design and construction professionals, including architects, engineers, specialty contractors, owners, consultants, lawyers, business development professionals, students and teachers.

DBIA members need a host of products and services to complete their design/construction projects including advocacy support, certification, and access to various industry-related resources. Member benefits include regional membership, Industry Insight, a weekly newsletter and Integration Quarterly, the quarterly magazine. DBIA also offers educational programs, including the Annual Conference, Water/Wastewater and Transportation Conferences, and the Federal Symposium.
