About

Founded in 1972, the National Association of Enrolled Agents (NAEA) is the only professional membership organization dedicated to assisting independent, licensed tax professionals called Enrolled Agents (EA). Licensed by the federal government, NAEA members have demonstrated technical competence in the field of taxation and represent taxpayers before all levels of the Internal Revenue Service.

As Enrolled Agents, NAEA members advise, represent and prepare tax returns for their clients. Clients include individuals, partnerships, corporations, estates, trusts and any entities with tax-reporting requirements. As the only tax representative (preparer) who receives their right to practice from the U.S. government, NAEA members are required to complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing professional education each year in the interpretation, application and administration of federal and state tax laws.

Paying $165 in annual dues, NAEA members represent over 8 million high income individuals and businesses each year and must constantly keep up-to-date with the changing field of tax law, their own business, and the financial needs of their clients.
