About

The National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators represent more than 20,000 financial aid professionals at nearly 3,000 colleges, universities and career schools across the country, making it the largest postsecondary education association with institutional membership in Washington, D.C. It is also the only national association with a primary focus on student aid legislation, regulatory analysis, and training for financial aid administrators.

NASFAA's members are among the many financial aid professionals who every year help more than 16 million students receive funding for postsecondary education. They represent all sectors of postsecondary education, including aid officers, business officers, human resources, accounting executives and others who have an interest in promoting the effective administration of student financial aid.
